Stubton Hall is an elegant 19th century country house set within 24 acres of its own parkland with commanding views over the Lincolnshire countryside close to the Nottinghamshire border and the historic market town of Newark.

Where is Stubton Hall?

The picturesque village of Stubton lies 5 miles southeast of Newark and 10 miles northwest of Grantham in Lincolnshire close to the Nottinghamshire border. How much will it cost?

We're not inexpensive - but we're certainly not the most expensive. We have a unique historic setting, expertly trained staff and a cracking chef. Because we offer such a personalized service, we expect to sit down with you to finalise the cost of your special day, but we are happy to provide the following guidelines:

If you want to get married on a Saturday, the venue fee will be between £1500 to £3500, depending on the time of year. Getting married on another day of the week will generally be less expensive. The cost depends on the size of your party, the number of reception rooms required, whether or not you will be married at Stubton and the date of the event.

To make our pricing easier to understand, we have devised three suggested packages - Lovely, Fancy and Extravagant. The Lovely package costs £95 per person and includes everything from the reception to wedding breakfast, wines, flowers on the tables, wedding cake and more. For ease, we have uploaded PDFs explaining these packages as well as menus and wine lists on our web site. We are also delighted to work together with you to design a bespoke package to fit your dreams.

These prices do not include the cost of the civil ceremony or church blessing because these charges are payable directly to the Registrar or the Church.

How many people can attend a wedding or civil partnership ceremony at Stubton Hall?

The Bow Room can accommodate up to 20 people for a small ceremony, the Music Room up to 90 and the Orangery up to 200. All rooms are easily accessible and air-conditioned.

How many people can attend a drinks reception?

The Bow Room can accommodate up to 40 people for a stand-up reception, the Music Room up to 100 and the Orangery up to 200. We also have a beautiful terrace on the south side of the house overlooking the fountain gardens. A combination of these rooms ensures that a large number of people may be accommodated within the historic rooms of the old Hall.

How many people can attend a sit-down meal?

The Orangery can seat up to 200 people while the Music Room and Conservatory can seat up to 50 people. We can also make arrangements for more intimate meals.

Will the ceremony and reception take place in the same room?

Not necessarily. One of the wonderful things about Stubton Hall is that we have lots of space and a variety of reception rooms. We suggest a ceremony in the Music Room followed by drinks on the terrace and a sit down meal in the Orangery. For ceremonies with more than 90 guests, please speak to us about other options.

Can we have a civil ceremony at Stubton Hall and hold our reception elsewhere?

Hmmm, we'll have to think about that. We prioritize use of our licensed rooms for guests who plan to use our full services.

Is there a church nearby?

Yes. St Martin's Church is at the centre of the village just steps away from Stubton Hall. It is available for wedding ceremonies (if you are eligible) or for blessings of civil ceremonies.

Can we get married elsewhere and have our reception at Stubton Hall?

By all means!

What about photography?

Whatever the weather, Stubton Hall, its lake, park and gardens offer a wide variety of beautiful places for photo opportunities. If you need a photographer, we'd be happy to recommend one.

What about flowers?

We use terrific florists in Nottingham called Vaas. We include an allowance for flowers on the tables in all of our menus. Vaas will be delighted to discuss colours and types of flowers with you and are also available to make co-ordinating wedding bouquets, bridal party flowers, church flowers and additional house decorations.
